DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the claimed limitation “mounting sleeve” must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claims 12-14. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled “Replacement Sheet” in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4, 6-10, and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morris et al. (US 5,459,500).

Morris et al. disclose a separate electrical connector, electrical interconnecting a first conductor (20) of a first electrical device (18) to a second conductor (14) of a second electrical device (12), comprising:

a layer of anisotropic conductive elastomer (2); and a compressing means (26);

wherein the first electrical device is a flex cable; and wherein the second electrical device is a printed circuit board.

Morris et al. substantially disclosed the claimed invention except for:

- at least the first and second electrical device is being a ribbon cable.
- at least the first and second electrical device is being a coaxial cable.

It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitation. Ex Parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Art Unit: 2833

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-5, 9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tighe (US 6,230,397).

Tighe a separable electrical connector for separately, electrical interconnecting a first conductor of a first multi-axial cable (9) to a second conductor of a second multi-axial cable (10), comprising:

a paddle board/printed circuit board (6, 7) electrically connected to each first and second conductor respectively.

a compressing means (23, 25, 27).

Tighe substantially disclosed the claimed invention except for an anisotropic layer between the paddle board/printed circuit board.

Morris et al. disclose a layer of anisotropic conductive elastomer (2) electrical interconnecting a first conductor (20) of a first electrical device (18) to a second conductor (14) of a second electrical device (12).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide an anisotropic layer into Tighe's connector, as taught by Morris et al. for providing a reliable, high yield electrical connection.

Art Unit: 2833

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 12-14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art of record fails to teach the compressing means comprises mounting sleeves coupled to both cables (drawings must be submitted).
